Atlanta, Georgia (PRWEB) April 29, 2013 -- For the third consecutive year, Diminished Value of Georgia, Atlanta's #1 auto appraisal company is ranked highest among all automotive services companies in the area.

On Angie's List, Bridgette Holmes from Atlanta says: "I was thoroughly impressed with how quickly they provided the report and sample demand letter and most important how quickly I received a check to deposit. I had to personalized the demand letter with my name and address and the amount DVG indicated my diminished value was worth.

"I submitted the documents by email to the insurer's insurance company. From the date I emailed the demand letter, they sent me a release form, and receiving the check at my home mail box was exactly five days."

Another reviewer on Angie's list, Jason Reece from Waleska said: "The insurance company I was dealing with is notorious for fighting DV claims and paying less than the appraised amount when they actually do pay. But they couldn't refute the appraisal from DV of Georgia because it so thoroughly documented their procedure and calculations. Without it, I would have been lucky to see a penny more than the ridiculous $179 check they originally sent (which I sent back with my Demand Letter)." Jason gave Diminished Value of Georgia an overall Grade A.

When answering questions about the appraisal company, the following answers were given:

Judy K from Atlanta said: "I was unfamiliar with diminished value until my recent auto accident. My insurance company almost immediately, without explanation, compensated me $697 for DV. I tried to negotiate with them for more, but got nowhere. I began to educate myself on DV and found Antoine's web site to be extremely informative. Antoine very patiently answered all my questions and educated me on all the details I needed to pursue additional DV. He gave me the tools to demand what was rightfully due in additional monies, and he negotiated a settlement with my insurance company's DV Adjuster for $3200. Thank you Antoine and Kevin! I will highly recommend your services! "

In addition to being highly ranked, DVGA has a A grade with the Better Business Bureau and never had an complaints.
