Presenting the 2022 Toyota Corolla Cross, a fusion of captivating pug-dog aesthetics and formidable performance, poised to reign supreme in the thriving American crossover sales arena. Beneath its stylish facade lies a vigorous 169-horsepower four-cylinder engine, affording drivers the option of front-wheel or all-wheel-drive configurations. Building on this prowess, an anticipated hybrid iteration is slated to join the lineup in the forthcoming 2023 model. Seamlessly nestled within Toyota's SUV spectrum, the Corolla Cross artfully bridges the gap between the compact C-HR and the capacious RAV4, carving out its unique niche.
